Hixburg

Hixburg, Dec. 8.- Don't be surprised if there is a tap on your door, or your bell rings, and you find two teen-agers standing there. You invite them in, and they sit down timidly and open a box of Christmas cards. "For the school" one would announce. You wonder, "What in the world is the school selling greeting cards for?" "A trip to New York City later, for the seniors of the Appomattox High School," you were told. "Some might never see the sights there unless sponsored by the teachers of the high school."

For many years, Mrs. Henry Wheeler, of Crewe has visited the Otis Gilliams, of Prospect, when vegetables were ready for use. From there she contact friends in - this neighborhood. Last summer, sickness in the families kept her at home. Then, she thought, "I'll surely make it in the fall."

Along came her doctor with an order, "No steps."

"So," she writes, "here I am. My little apartment is so comfortable, I am thankful to be up, and able to do for myself."

Mac Coleman, Jr., age 8, will not be climbing any more for a long time. On Friday, Nov. 28, he decided to scale the old barnshed. He fell and split his knee. When his mother tried to stop the bleeding, he fell out in a dead faint. After regaining consciousness, he was rushed to a doctor's office, where it took seven stitches to close the gash. As yet he has not been able to attend school.

At home for Christmas will be Carrie Jane Inge, with twenty days' vacation starting Dec. 16. She is delighted with her training at Longwood College. Also, her parents are pleased with her progress there.

Back in her accustomed seat in the choir at Walker's Church at Hixburg, sat Kate Goin Adams and her husband, Wade Adams, on Sunday A. M. At the present time they are living in his parent's home at Charlotte Court House.

Missing from Church at Hixburg Sunday was Mrs. Belle Marshall, who had been called back to the Petersburg Home for Ladies. She will be there several weeks.

"Home and Community Beautification" is the topic for the State Home Demonstration Clubs for 1958.

Mrs. Bob Covington went to work earnestly on that subject. E. A. Covington, her brother-in-law, with a skilled touch has been remodeling her home for three weeks. They are sanding floors, painting, and putting in a bathroom.

Mrs. R. E. Fore has returned home from a ten days' visit with relatives in Washington, Philadelphia, and Dover. She was accompanied by Mrs. E. W. McClintic, of Lynchburg.

Many from this neighborhood attended the funeral services for Mr. Edward Kinckle Martin on Friday at Mt. Comfort Methodist Church, with interment in the family cemetery.

Mr. Ed McPhillips was kept from teaching his Sunday School class at Elon Baptist Church on Sunday by a virus infection. The Rev. W. M. Black, an able substitute, taught for him.

Kathy Goin was taken to Southside Community Hospital in Farmville on Friday night. She underwent an operation on Saturday.

Mr. Frank Goin has returned from Community Hospital, where he was treated for asthma.

PAMPLIN, ROUTE ONE

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Roach, Stanley, Johnny and Donald Roach were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Letcher Bryant, of near Pamplin. Clarence Borwn also called there in the afternoon. He has just completed his new, modern home, between Pamplin and Hixburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen McIntosh and girls, Mrs. Dora Jean Williams and Steve, of Waynesboro, Va.; Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Arrington and Debbie, of Amelia were supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Roach Saturday night.

Dying By Their Own Hand

New York.- The hand that sets off a false fire alarm will give the offender away.

The Fire Department, declaring chemical warfare on offenders, has treated certain alarm boxes here with a phosphorescent compound that glows brightly under so-called black light.

Soap and the passage of time—up to 30 days — will not remove the phosphorescent material.

What Is The Largest "Woman's Club" In Virginia?

735,400 Women Who Save Trading Stamps Are The Largest "Woman's Club" In Virginia

Every day about 735,400 Virginia women make it a point to shop where they get trading stamps. This large group of smart, thrifty Virginia shoppers, with their common interest in trading stamps, can be thought of as a huge "woman's club" with membership throughout the state.

Of course this "club woman" gets wonderful things for her home and family through such favorites as S&H Green Stamps. Through her thrift and diligence she provides "extras" for her family. And although she may seldom think about it, her active saving is enormously good for business in our state.

Last year, for example, trading stamp companies purchased $5,738,000 worth of products from Virginia manufacturers. Making these things provided jobs for 615 Virginia people. S&H Redemption Stores, paying local rent and taxes, employ many more.

In the light of these facts it would seem that not only Virginia women, but everybody in the state can be thankful that the trading stamp is a part of our way of life.
